SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

This collection includes general correspondence and day files as well as policy and procedural information generated by the office of the Dean/Vice President of Academic Affairs. The collection also includes committee minutes, reports, information on program development and publications such as the academic calendar and local web pages that provide access to information about the school's academic programs and activities. No records are available prior to 1947 and information is limited prior to the 1990s. Access to certain records may be restricted.

SERIES DESCRIPTION:

Series I- Committees

This series includes minutes and related information from several administrative committees including staff meetings, Department Heads/Chairs, Inter-Departmental Coordinating Group, Academic Advisory Council for Academic Support and the semi-annual University Meeting.

Series II- Correspondence

The first and largest segment of the series includes Day Files from the office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs dating from September 1973 through September of 1991. These files are arranged as they were received, in reverse chronological order. This is followed by general correspondence dating from 1956-present. Correspondence in the form of computer generated email is incorporated into the collection beginning in 2001.

Series III- Policy and Procedures

This series includes information on policy and procedural issues concerning the Dean's List, faculty organizations, grading and Student Support Services.

Series IV- Programs

This series includes a variety of information related to both short-term and on-going academic programs. The earliest material dates from the mid-1950s. Unique or one-time programs are filed in together and may span several years. Access may be restricted for folders that include personal information.

Series V- Publications

This series includes published materials prepared for the Office of Academic Affairs, including academic calendars dating from 1971-present and selected web pages maintained by the academic affairs division.

Series VI- Reports

This series offers formal reports reflecting a variety of academic activities on campus including information on academic planning, curriculum, grading, statistics and strategic planning. This material dates from 1964-present.

RELATED COLLECTIONS:

Related material may be found in Administrative Affairs, Academic Advisement, Academic Services Center, Annual Reports, Learning Center, School of Arts & Sciences, School of Continuing Education, School of Education & Professional Studies, University Senate/Committees, Strategic Planning, Teacher Education and Publications: catalogs, admissions publications and registration booklets.

The University Archives has a substantial collection of university archives material and also houses the Connecticut Studies Collection.
