SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

The contents of this collection document the growth and development of alumni activities at Eastern from its early days as a teacher training school to its present standing as a growing public liberal arts university. The collection offers a large collection of information about the Alumni Association including formal correspondence, minutes and reports of the Board of Directors plus information on its members & committees, programs and special events. Series VII - Gifts & Series VIII – Realia, offer an historical look at the school through memorabilia collected and shared with us by our generous alumni.

SERIES DESCRIPTION:

Series I- Correspondence

This series offers a collection of correspondence dating from 1953-present. The early correspondence is primarily between the director and alumni in preparation for class reunions and homecoming weekends while later correspondence also includes office mail sent via email and covering a variety of topics.

Series II - Minutes

This series offers a selection of minutes and records generated by alumni committees and organizations including minutes from the Board of Directors and Alumni Reunion Committee dating from 1952-2001. These minutes are arranged first by board or committee name then by date within the sub-series.

Series III - Awards

This series offers award and scholarship descriptions including the names of many of the recipients. Information is available for the following: Distinguished Alumni Award, Distinguished Service Award, Sophie Jenkins Scholarship, Shafer-Noble Scholarship and a limited number of individual awards.

Series IV – News clippings

This series offers a selection of articles, press releases and news items concerning the school and some of its alumni in the news.

Series V - Programs

This series offers brochures and other print material describing workshops, activities and special events including information on class reunions sponsored by the Alumni Association. News clippings offer dates and descriptions of specific alumni events. It also documents some fundraising and promotional activities.

Series VI - Alumni Association Records

This series includes the following: an early treasurer's ledger dated 1896-1935; copies of the alumni association constitution and by-laws; a brief history of the association written in the 1985; a listing of the board of directors for 1962, 1976-1988; 2001-present. It includes two lists of graduates dating from 1900-1985 on original computer printouts: one organized by name and the other by year of graduation. These lists include maiden names and/or married names of graduates and their addresses at the time of the printing. There is also a small group of placement records dating from 1979-1981.

Series VII – Gift Collections

This series includes material donated to the University, Alumni Association and/or the Smith Library Archives & Special Collections by former students. The collections include an autograph book, photographs, scrapbooks, dance cards, school booklets, sweatshirts, mugs and other memorabilia. Single items and small collections are boxed together and arranged in date order while larger collections are separately boxed and identified by the name of the donor. Collections requiring multiple boxes are stored outside of this collection according to the donor's last name.

Series VIII - Realia

This series includes objects such as diplomas, certificates, plaques, banners and other school objects of interest which were donated by faculty, staff or alumni.

Series IX - Photographs

This series includes some original photographs of class members, photograph albums and photographs taken at alumni events including photographs of Jubilee Celebrations (50th) held commencement weekend.

RELATED COLLECTIONS:

The University Archives has related material in the following collections: Institutional Advancement; Teacher Education/Student Teaching & Placement Records; Print Collection: Alumni Newsletter and Alumni Directory, college catalogs, news clippings and yearbooks (1922-1998 & 2003-present), and in the Photograph Collection, 1889-present.

The University Archives has a substantial collection of university archives material and also houses the Connecticut Studies Collection.
