BIOGRAPHY:

David George Carter, Sr. was born in 1942 in Dayton, Ohio where he attended Edison Elementary School and graduated from Roosevelt High School. He earned a B.S. degree from Central State University in Ohio, a M.Ed. from Miami University in Ohio and a Ph.D. from Ohio State University.

He worked as an elementary school teacher, vice principal, principal and unit facilitator responsible for overseeing more than 20,000 elementary, middle and high school students in 24 Ohio schools. He spent four years as associate professor in the College of Education at Pennsylvania State University; eleven years at the University of Connecticut as Professor of Educational Administration, Associate Dean in the School of Education and as Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Carter became the fifth president of Eastern in April 1988. He was the first African American president of a four-year institution of higher education in Connecticut.

Dr. Carter published numerous journal articles which have appeared in: the Journal of Education and Urban Society; the Journal of Black Studies; the NOLPE School Law Journal; Planning and Changing; Urban Education; Emerging Leadership; the Journal of Law and Education; and the NASSP Bulletin.

He received many awards including: the NAACP Roy Wilkins Civil Rights Award; the Black History Community Service Award (the Urban League of Greater Hartford); the Tapestry Award (the Hartford Courant) and was selected "Man of the Year" in 2000 by the African American Affairs Commission. Dr. Carter was also active in state and local organizations and agencies including: the Eastern States Exposition (member; past chair of the Connecticut Trustees), the Hartford Club (member), and the Governor's Steering Committee on the Task Force of the Connecticut Center for Science and Exploration (member). He served as chair and member of numerous boards and committees including many years as a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III Presidents Council.

Dr. Carter completed his tenure at Eastern in January 2006 and become Chancellor of the Connecticut State University System in February 2006.
