BIOGRAPHY:

Dr. Elsa M. Nuñez was born in Puerto Rico and later moved to New York City with her family where she attended public school. She went on to receive a bachelor's degree from Montclair State College in 1970, a master's degree in English from Fairleigh Dickinson University in 1973 and a doctorate in linguistics from Rutgers University in 1979. Dr. Nuñez is married to Richard Freeland and has two children, Maria and Antony.

She held positions as a tenured faculty member at Ramapo State University, the College of Staten Island of the City University of New York, and Lehman College of the City University of New York. In 1986 she became Dean of the Faculty at the College of Staten Island of The City University of New York, later serving as the Dean for Academic Affairs and Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. She served as the Vice President for Academic Affairs at Wheelock College; as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Lesley University and as Vice Chancellor at the University of Maine System before coming to Eastern.

Dr. Nuñez work has been recognized in many areas. She received several academic fellowships. She was selected as one of three Outstanding Women of the Year by Governor Thomas Kean of New Jersey in 1987. She has published many articles and co-authored a book titled Pursuing Diversity which was published in 1990.¹

On May 18, 2006, Dr. Elsa Nuñez became the sixth president of Eastern Connecticut State University and formally assumed the Office of the President on August 4, 2006. Dr. Nuñez holds the distinction of being the first Latina president of a Connecticut state university.
