C.Francis Willey Papers, 1942–1983. University Archives Eastern Connecticut State University

BIOGRAPHY:

Professor C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern Connecticut State University for 41 years. He attended Boston University, where he graduated Phi Beta Kappa in 1936. He received his Ph.D. from Yale University in 1941; his dissertation was on the medieval wine trade of England. He received his full time appointment to Eastern (then known as the Willimantic State Teachers College) in the fall of 1942, where he taught until his retirement in 1983.

The collection documents his long-standing interest in inter-group and racial relations which led him to develop a student exchange program with Hampton Institute (now Hampton University) in the late 1940s. He was also involved in the statewide committee on Inter-group Relations. In 1950, Professor Willey was requested by the Commissioner of Education to form a committee to promote an understanding of the United Nations in Connecticut. A firm believer in interdisciplinary study, he arranged numerous student trips or "study tours" to such disparate areas as Mexico, the Appalachian region, Colonial Williamsburg, Puerto Rico, and Canada. He also served as head of the History Club, holding meetings at his home for many years.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

There are 112 folders of material in the original Willey collection. There is also a large collection of sound reels/audio tapes. Most of these sound reels are lecture related, but there are a few that might be of particular interest to the public, such as the 2 reels of ESCS history narrated by J. Eugene Smith. Paper files include: the Connecticut Inter-Racial Commission, civil rights decisions, a sociological study of Willimantic, Connecticut Commission on United Nations, bulletins from the Connecticut Humanities Council, and the Hampton Exchange program (which includes correspondence from participating students).

Of special interest to the ECSU community are files relating to 1960s unrest-- ECSC reaction to the Birmingham struggle of 1963, the Kent State incident, and the war in Cambodia and Vietnam. There are also a few copies of the student-produced newsletter "Strike News," from the late 1960s when a group of Eastern students went on strike to protest the Kent State incident. That particular file also contains reaction from and the opinion of various staff members on the events.

The C. Francis Willey Collection was donated to the University Archives in the 1980's, source unknown. The personal papers of Series I have been kept in their original order.

SERIES DESCRIPTION:

Series I – Personal Papers

This series reflects the varied activities of Professor Willey while he was at Eastern. It includes committees & commissions on which he served, programs he taught or developed and material related to courses he taught. It also offers information on study tours he led to Puerto Rico and Mexico.
